

Annual FRNOW Networking Event

Welcome the New Year
in the spirit of community collaboration!

Please join us for “Speed Networking”
Tuesday January 21, 2020
9:30-11:00
Waltham Library

We invite you to come share information about your program and services with other local colleagues and agencies to support our collective work to make Waltham an inclusive, supportive, and safe place for all families.

We are very excited to offer this opportunity to meet and connect with other providers supporting Waltham families and hope to see you there!

Coffee and light refreshments will be served.

Event Address:
Waltham Public Library
Lecture Hall (downstairs)
735 Main St,
Waltham MA
02451

Please park in the Central Square Lot accessed on Lexington St. or Common St.

To RSVP, email mcarrasco@jfcsboston.org

Mission: “The Family Resilience Network of Waltham (FRNOW) is a collaborative networking group comprised of organizations that serve families in Waltham and surrounding communities. The Council provides a forum for these organizations to share information and resources, collaborate in formal and informal ways, and grow together through professional development opportunities.

The purpose of this collaboration is to enhance the ability of organizations to identify and address the needs of their constituents as well as encourage and reinforce the strengths of the community.”
