

Facing Addiction By Building Community Resilience

As the holidays move closer, we honor those we have lost, and look to strengthen support for those still among us.

December 13, 2018

Robbins Library Community Room
700 Massachusetts Avenue Arlington, MA

6pm: Enjoy refreshments and explore local resources.
Free Narcan training available. Treatment providers present to answer questions.

7:30pm True Story Theater performance

Hosted By: MetroBoston Project Outreach

Who are we: A collaboration of support agencies and The Health and Police Departments of Arlington, Belmont, Lexington, Newton, Waltham, Watertown and Weston.

Our mission: To connect our residents and their families with treatment and resources that will assist them towards recovery.

True Story Theater

Who are we: a nonprofit theater company that creates a respectful atmosphere where every voice can be heard and any story told — however ordinary or extraordinary, difficult or joyful. True Story Theater offers audiences fresh perspectives, deeper connections, and a renewed appreciation for our common humanity.

Our mission: to build empathy and respect in community through honoring all of our true stories.

For any questions please contact Rebecca Tsopelas 781-316-3947

This project is supported in part by the National Endowment for the Arts