RE: Nathaniel Banks Portrait

Dear Councillors:

Councillor Darcy asked me if I have information about the Banks portrait. This portrait was in the Banks School when the School Department surplused the building to the City. I asked the School Committee if they wanted it since Banks and Fitch were merged. They did not want it.

So it is on loan to the Waltham Museum. Please see the attached December 15, 2015 communication regarding the same.

Sincerely,

Jeannette A. McCarthy
