The City of Waltham and the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD)
Section 8 Webinar

HUD is pleased to invite you to Region I's Section 8 Voucher webinar to be held on March 8, 2022, from 9:30-11:00AM. This webinar will provide real estate agents, owners and managers of rental units, key information on the Section 8 voucher program and its benefits for landlords. The housing choice voucher program as well as the emergency housing voucher (EHV) program are the federal government's major program for assisting very low-income families, the elderly, and the disabled as well as veterans, individuals, and families facing homelessness, to afford decent, safe, and sanitary housing in the private market.

Please join us by registering at the link below as we share the program basics, dispel myths and answer your questions. Prior to the webinar, a TEAMS link will be provided to the email you list on your registration.
